

New Lawn Water Restriction Exemption

Congratulations for choosing natural turf. Watering your new lawn in the establishment period is very important to ensure the roots grow strong and keep your lawn healthy. As a new lawn owner, you are eligible to apply for exemption to water during the restriction period. Turf NSW and Sydney Water have established a New Lawn Water Exemption system for up to 8 weeks.

You MUST apply to Sydney Water to receive the 8 week exemption.

How to apply:

- 💧 Email Sydney Water requesting exemption
- 💧 exemptions@sydneywater.com.au

What you need:

- 💧 Provide your name, address and contact number
- 💧 Address of where the turf has been laid
- 💧 Date of delivery
- 💧 Turf Supplier details and docket number

When to apply:

- 💧 You have 7 days, from delivery, to apply for exemption.

Water is a valuable resource and please use water wisely.
Talk to your turf supplier for the advice on watering and management of your specific turf variety.

Important information:

New Lawn owners have an exclusion period of 7 days, where water is permitted. Watering of newly laid turf for a period of 7 days from the date of the delivery receipt, according to the watering instructions provided by the turf supplier.

Water used under this exclusion must only be applied to the newly laid turf and not to surrounding areas.
